A Visit to the River دریا کی سیر

Last Sunday, we enjoyed the river view. A boatman came to us. He asked if we wanted to enjoy boating. We got on the boat. He rowed the boat slowly towards the mid of the river. It was an interesting experience. The boat went here and there. In the mid of the river, it was very quiet. I put my hand into the water. It was cold.

We also saw many other boats sailing on the water. The children looked excited and the parents looked amused. After the river side visit we came back home in the evening.
